

PINTAS IP GROUP

In a knowledge-based economy where technology and economic change rapidly with intense global market competition, Intellectual Property Rights (IP) are the key critical factor for business expansion and profitability.

In alignment with our clients' business objectives, we help our clients to develop comprehensive IP protection plans that take full advantage of utility and design patents, trade secrets, trademarks, domain names, copyrights and other forms of intellectual property.

From concept to market, and every stage along the way, we protect, enforce, defend, and expand your innovations and brand identity. We turn your ideas into valuable business assets.
